

WHY SOME PROPHECIES ARE NOT FULFILLED M. A. DANIEL

Prophecy is an event related before it happens. It is often spoken by people called prophets and they occupy a very special place in every society. Prophecies are usually concise, specific and definitely in the future. There are two major types of prophecies and they are both from one source. Prophecies are of divine origin and hence from God. We need to introduce a third type of prophecy which is not from God and will not come to past. So, in order to clarify, we have true and false prophecies. True prophecy is from God and false prophecy is from familiar spirits and the false prophets imagination.

Who is a prophet?

A prophet is an individual who is divinely inspired to give a prophecy. The previous paragraph makes it easy to have true prophets and false prophets depending on the source of their inspiration. A true prophet is always completely immersed in the word of God and does not function separate from it. A false prophet is always uttering sweet enticing words that can easily lure people to believe them. A true prophet may not always bring good news. The prophet is not in control of what they say, they just relate what they have been inspired divinely by. A false prophet is usually not vast in the word of God and does not have a viable prayer life to accompany their gifts. They are usually very proud individuals who crave the attention of others and do not always point to God in all they do. If you study an individual you can easily decipher if they are true prophets or not. It is very important to point out that some false prophets probably started out being genuine but got hijacked by pride and then Satan overruns their gifts. The latter group makes it difficult for many Christians to decipher a false prophet and that is what makes it imperative for everyone to have viable relationship with God so as to have a spirit that can validate other spirits.

False prophecies

It is important to mention this right now as we have so many across the world pretending to be prophets of God. Some of them are involved in telling you things that are correct about you and then projecting a prophecy that is not true on you. For example, they will tell you about some personal details that may be correct and while this draws you in, they then go ahead to prophesy into your life. Many of these individuals are subscribing to demonic spirits called familiar spirits that have been commissioned by Satan to follow us around since Satan is not everywhere at all times. These demons gather information that are used by the enemy against us. Many of these prophets can talk about the past or present regarding many inconsequential things and then they make false pronouncements about the future.

God's agenda for your life

Signs of a false prophet

The first give-away sign of a false prophet is a discernable spirit of pride; God does not have anything to do with pride. The next clue about deciphering false prophets is that they are usually shallow in the word of God. The Bible makes it clear that you shall know them by their fruits. A true prophet is meant to point you to Christ. Another clue is that they are always about money; somehow they will ask you for money. Many of these individuals are self-seeking, egotistical money seeking fiends preying on the ignorant.

True prophecies

There are two major types; Gods agenda for the world and Gods agenda for your life.

God's agenda for the worldDeuteronomy 4:35

You were shown these things so that you might know that the LORD is God; besides him there is no other.

Genesis 46:3

"I am God, the God of your father," he said. "Do not be afraid to go down to Egypt, for I will make you into a great nation there.

Numbers 16:28

Then Moses said, "This is how you will know that the LORD has sent me to do all these things and that it was not my idea:

Joshua 11:6

The LORD said to Joshua, "Do not be afraid of them, because by this time tomorrow I will hand all of them over to Israel, slain. You are to hamstring their horses and burn their chariots."

Matthew 1:22-23

22All this took place that it might be fulfilled which the Lord had spoken through the prophet, 23Behold, the virgin shall become pregnant and give birth to a Son, and they shall call His name Emmanuel—which, when translated, means, God with us.

Rev 22:7

7"Behold, I am coming soon! Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy in this book.”

There is an agenda for the world and nothing will change it. God had it already planned and settled. All things will have to align with that agenda and not the other way round. Jesus would be born, he would save us and come back to get us. That is settled. All of the major biblical events were all leading to it and all of what is happening now is working towards the fulfilment of that prophecy. We all have different roles to play in the scope of Gods agenda and our lives are affected to various degrees depending on that agenda. If you can work out the agenda and more importantly your role in it, your life is on a certain course.

God's agenda for your life

This is a prophecy that indicates what God has planned for your life and it is meant to encourage and guide you into making right choices to make them happen. This type of prophecy may not happen if you don't accompany it with the right actions. God wanted Moses to lead the children of Israel to the Promised Land but Moses made some wrong choices and did not make it there. It is very important to point out that God knows the choices we will make but he does not make those choices for us. Joseph could have died without making it to the palace if he had made wrong choices in any part of his journey there. The Bible makes it clear that many did not make it to the Promised Land because they murmured. When you are given a prophecy, you are supposed to check it with your spirit and make warfare with it. What that means is that you are supposed to pray and be sensitive to the leading of the Holy Spirit to make right choices.

1 Timothy 1:18

This charge I commit to you, son Timothy, according to the prophecies previously made concerning you, that by them you may wage the good warfare. Personal prophecies require your active participation in order to make it happen. The reason for personal prophecies is to make you sure of Gods plan for you. This helps your faith and adds impetus to your journey. You are meant to do all that lies in your power to make your dreams come true and you can count on the help of God because it goes with his will.

You are supposed to be cultivating a vibrant relationship with God and the Holy Spirit so that are aware of Gods plan for you and when a prophecy comes, it is to affirm that which you already know or feel very strongly about but not entirely sure. Every child of God can operate in the prophetic because Paul advises us to covet spiritual gifts and especially the gift to prophesy.

1 Corinthians 14:5

I would like every one of you to speak in tongues, but I would rather have you prophesy. He who prophesies is greater than one who speaks in tongues, unless he interprets, so that the church may be edified.

Acts 2:17

“ In the last days, God says, I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your young men will see visions, your old men will dream dreams. Acts 2:18 Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy. This is different from those that have been raised to sit in the office of the prophet and they oversee what happens to the body of Christ as God shows them what is to happen. They function as watchmen to the body of Christ. In conclusion, prophecy is spectacular and many are taken in by it. This has given rise to many deceptions and it will escalate as we come near the end of age. If you have been given a prophecy by a true prophet, make a good warfare with it so it can come to past. God bless.
