

2011-THE YEAR DESTINIES WILL BE MADE . MATTHEWA.DANIEL.

Happy New Year readers I pray for all you have imagined and more in Jesus name. This is not another cliché topic; this is a revelation on the year. I pray that God the Holy Spirit will expatiate and help you attain your portion in Jesus name.

Past

There was a time, Money failed and all the money in the land was gone. People got hungry and had to mortgage their lives for an opportunity to feed. In this difficult time, Gods children prospered and increased and flourished. (Gen 47).

Then

God raised deliverers in Zion who took over the mountain of Esau and made the world the kingdom of our God. These were people who aligned with the living God and took over all things for the kingdom of God. (Obadiah 1:21).

Now and forever

The king of this world has become the kingdom of our God. (Rev 11:15). This is the year giant nations will bulk at the mountain of debts and other disasters but it's the time of the church as genuine children of God take over in various fields of endeavour. it will be a quiet start but then the world will eventually notice and enquire what our source is. This is the time to sharpen your vision and engage. The heavens are open. God will continue to expose the false ones among us as fresh faces emerge on the spiritual landscape. Like minded people need to connect with one another. Synergy is the key word. When God gives a revelation, faith is the key to access it. God said it, I believe it. What about you? Shalom.

“In the midst of serious worldwide economic melt down Gods children will prosper and many dreams will be birthed and realised this year.”
